Three male detectives become embroiled in a tense struggle after a tragic accident that leaves a child in a coma. One is guilty of a crime, one will try to cover it up, and the other attempts to expose it. How far will these men go to both disguise and unravel the truth?

The swaying of the moral tightrope brings tension, contemplation and alarm in this taut and absorbing psychological thriller; the closer we look and the deeper we tread, the more we become sucked into the quagmire of deceit. Survival, self-preservation and integrity jostle uncomfortably as the bruises of human flaws becomes evident. Joel Edgerton has conceived and written a cracker of a film that resonates at every turn, offering food for thought to society's issues and pressures and in particular in relation to the police force.
